

LOOKING FOR A GLIMPSE INTO YOUR LOVE LIFE THIS APRIL?

Love-themed Tarot card readings by Emma Lord

These horoscopes consist of two-card tarot readings. The first card represents influences in your love and sex life that are coming to an end, while the second card indicates new energies on the horizon. Simply identify your astrological sign and read the interpretation to find out what awaits you this month. For more insight, try listening to the recommended song. These are general readings, so the interpretations may not resonate with everyone. If they seem accurate, it means this reading was meant for you!

Emma Lord has been practicing the art of Tarot and divination since December 2018. She currently resides in Boston, Massachusetts with her dwarf hamster Benjamin Lee and studies linguistics at Northeastern University.

Aries

March 21 - Apr 20

Cards: Wheel of Fortune and Ten of Pentacles
Song: Like or Like Like by Miniature Tigers

Has your love life felt like a roulette wheel recently? The Wheel of Fortune suggests that in the past month, blessings have been quick to come but even quicker to go. Fear not Aries, as the Ten of Pentacles suggests that this April you'll be able to make these blessings stick around, and accumulate some stability in your relationships.

Taurus

Apr 21 - May 21

Cards: Six of Cups and The Devil
Song: Sex on the Regular by Miniature Tigers

The Six of Cups suggests that you've been living in the past this month Taurus, and it's time to spice things up! With the Devil in your spread, expect new influences to revitalize your sex drive this April. But be careful, there is a fine line between indulgence and addiction, and whatever awaits you is irresistibly good.

Gemini

May 22 - June 21

Cards: Three of Cups Reversed and The Tower
Song: Pork Soda by Glass Animals

Someone needs a wakeup call. Gemini, the Three of Cups reversed suggests that something has been keeping you from being able to truly relax and connect with others this March. Embrace the Tower as a chance to deconstruct your mindset surrounding sex and relationships. Pick out the broken pieces and rebuild a stronger foundation.

Cancer

June 22 - July 22

Cards: The Sun Reversed and Knight of Wands
Song: High (Michael Uzowuru & Jeff Kleinman Remix Featuring Denzel Curry & Twelve'len) by Little Dragon

The Knight of Wands is here to brighten up your April showers, Cancer! The Sun reversed implies that you've had trouble finding that inner warmth recently. Keep an eye out for a fire-sign man or woman, someone who lights your flame. If not a fire sign, this special someone could be anyone with that extra spark.

Leo

July 23 - Aug 22

Cards: Nine of Pentacles and Four of Wands
Song: All of the Drugs by The Brokbecks

The Nine of Pentacles implies that your tendency to show off has been aflame this March. Leo, the Four of Wands recommends that you take a step back and make choices that lead to the most stable outcomes. I'm sure your feathers have called you many suitors, but your best option may not be the most flashy.

Virgo

Aug 23 - Sept 22

Cards: Seven of Swords and The Empress
Song: it's not u it's me by Bea Miller

Virgo, it's time for you to stop making everything into a competition. You may feel like all March had to bring you was rivals with the Seven of Swords, but this April is the perfect time to declare yourself the winner. Reconnect with your inner empress. Focus on your own love life, rather than others.

Libra

Sept 23 - Oct 22

Cards: The World and Queen of Swords
Song: Disaster by Relient K

The World card indicates that things may have felt like they've been a little too perfect this month, Libra. It's fine to enjoy these moments of love and romance, but don't let your heart take the driver's seat right away. The Queen of Swords represents a woman with a strong rational mind. Use your head and take the time to think things through.

Scorpio

Oct 23 - Nov 21

Cards: Seven of Pentacles and Seven of Cups
Song: Sing About Me, I'm Dying of Thirst by Kendrick Lamar

Scorpio, the Seven of Cups indicates that this month will be filled with choices. The Seven of Pentacles implies that you have put in the work and are now reaping the rewards of having many options to explore intimacy. Don't let the choices paralyze you, and don't end up with more cups than you can fill!

Sagittarius

Nov 22 - Dec 21

Cards: Four of Pentacles and The Emperor
Song: It All Feels Right by Washed Out

The time you have taken to find stability is about to be worth it, Sagittarius! The Four of Pentacles implies you have found new insight regarding your physical resources. This will allow for the energy of the Emperor to present itself, whether that authoritative edge is found within yourself or your partner.

Capricorn

Dec 22 - Jan 20

Cards: Seven of Wands and The Magician
Song: Big Toe by the Growlers

This March you may have felt pressure to stand up for what you believe in, Capricorn. Luckily, in April you will begin to feel as if the opposition to your love life is beginning to melt away, as long as you're able to trust your own powers of manifestation and embody the Magician.

Aquarius

Jan 21 - Feb 19

Cards: Ten of Cups Reversed and The Chariot
Song: Psychic Reader by Bad Bad Hats

The Ten of Cups reversed suggests that the past month has left you feeling like the traditional vision of a family is impossible to achieve. The Chariot is advising you to take that idea and run with it. Instead of being disappointed that you can't fulfill traditional roles of sex and love, set out to find new ones.

Pisces

Feb 20 - March 20

Cards: Princess of Pentacles Reversed and The Lovers
Song: Different State of Mind by Kid Bloom

March may have felt like one long string of disappointments, Pisces. The Princess of Pentacles reversed may signal that an earth-sign man or woman has let you down. This April, expect new love-interests to enter the scene. The Lovers card suggests that a choice will have to be made, even in the face of disappointment.

